Curriculum Vitae

Bio

Ratrikala Bhre Aditya was born in 1986. He starts his audio visual career in 2002 with a small documentary that aired on Jakarta International Film Festival 2003 and received an exclusive screening on World Water Day at the United Nations Office, New York. Bhre directed his first long documentary titled Burned Flower which tells about Indonesian assassinated human rights activist, Munir Said Thalib. The film screened on Jiffest 2005, several screenings in many cities at home and abroad, as well as at the Singapore International Film Festival 2005.

Since then, Bhre has pursued his career by making several documentary titles, television documentary programs, taking part in many commercial production productions, becoming a screenwriter of several company profiles and exhibitions, and having worked for Miles Films in their two box office films , Laskar Pelangi and The Dreamer. He went on to become assistant director for Mathias Muchus in the film Rindu Purnama, several films produced by Miles Films such as Atambua 39 Degrees Celsius, Messages from the Ocean, Sokola Rimba, Golden Cane Warrior in 2014, and What's Up with Love 2. Then for his experience in documentary, Bhre was entrusted to be Riri Riza's Co-Director for his music documentary: God Bless - Years of Rock Indonesia. In a short documentary, he directed Lentera Hati Priska, who won in the Film Box Competition. And his first short film, C'est La Vie, had the opportunity to appear in various screenings, including the Jogjakarta Asian Netpac Film Festival, SEA Screen and the Busan International Film Festival, South Korea.
